

Your online portal for inspiration, information and research solutions

www.inspire.IN.gov

INSPIRE — Indiana's virtual library operated by Indiana State Library — has invested in quality online resources from Gale to meet your needs. Visit www.inspire.IN.gov

LOOK AT WHAT YOU CAN ACCESS!

Testing & Education Reference Center provides the tools — college information, scholarships, sample tests and more — necessary to prepare for and thrive in high school, college, graduate school and a career.

Small Business Resource Center helps entrepreneurs beat a challenging economy by offering online access to reference works covering all major business areas.

LitFinder is the largest collection of literature available online — everything from the sonnets of Shakespeare to stories by up-and-coming writer Elizabeth Weld and more.

Biography Resource Center is your source for information on noteworthy figures from around the world and throughout history.

¡Informe! is the first system for Spanish-speaking users to provide indexing, images and full text from over 100 popular Hispanic magazines — not just translations.

Contemporary Authors offers current biographical and bibliographical data on modern authors — J.K. Rowling, Isaac Asimov, Toni Morrison, Neil Simon and many others.

www.gale.com
1-800-877-GALE

©2009. Gale is a registered trademark used herein under license.
GML47709 PD/MS 04/09